

I'm not my record. I've applied for 30 jobs this year. I've had roughly 35 interviews. Some have gotten to the second interview.

But I've also earned 17 grants and procurements out of 20 applications. I've completed five fellowships. I created my own organization and raised over $625,000.

I'm not my record. I'm not my past. I'm here today, and I deserve a future. And I wanna work for that future.
